Data Protection & Transparency Notice for politicians

How we'll use your data

Here at Simpol, your privacy matters to us. That's why we will only use the information you provide to support the Simpol campaign.

Specifically, that means listing you publicly as one of our Pledged Politicians so our supporters will know who to give preference to at future elections. Your name, Political Party affiliation, and any quote of support will be prominently featured on our website and other channels. We will also gather a photo of you from the public domain to accompany this information.

During an election, we may share your name and party affiliation with other candidates to encourage them to sign the Simpol Pledge.

Following an election, we may contact you with updates via email on the Simpol campaign.

How long we'll keep it and your rights

Our campaign is reliant on momentum and political support, which is why we hope to keep you with us. However, we'll only keep your information on file until you notify us in writing that you no longer wish to support Simpol.

If at any point you believe the information we process on you is incorrect you may request to see this information and even have it corrected or deleted. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact John Bunzl (info@simpol.org) directly to investigate the matter.

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).
